Charlie Bucket stared around the gigantic room in which he now found himself. The place was like a witch's kitchen! All about him black metal pots were boiling and bubbling on huge stoves, and kettles were hissing and pans were sizzling. Strange iron machines were clanking and spluttering and there were pipes running all over the ceiling and walls. The whole place was filled with smoke, steam and delicious rich smells. Mr Wonka had suddenly become even more excited than usual. He was hopping about among the saucepans and the machines like a child among his Christmas presents, not knowing which thing to look at first. He ran over to another machine, a small shiny affair that kept going phut-phut-phut-phut-phut, and every time it went phut, a large green marble dropped out of it into a basket on the floor.

1. Write down the verbs.
2. Can you find the simile?
3. How did Charlie feel when he was looking around the room? How do you know this?
4. What does sizzling mean?
5. Which words tell you that the machines were noisy?
6. How would you feel walking into that room? Explain your answer.
7. Could you find better words for

The sound collectors came to visit
Our school sports day,
They took all our favourite sounds away.
The laughing of the children,
The thudding of the Dad's Race,
The plop of the welly,
The thud of a child falling,
The shouting of the children,
The cheering of the parents,
The ringing of the bell,
The tweeting of the singing of the birds.
The sound collectors came today,
Now they've taken all the sounds
away,
Now the field is quiet.

Supporting your team
Participating in all sports
Organising down to the last second
Running, leaping, jumping, hopping
Time running short
Sunny weather

Daring to push our limits
Always supporting, never criticising
Yielding the victory cup!

Fasten your laces,
Toes behind the line,
The sun is shining,
It's Sports Day time!

It's time to have races,
It's time to have fun,
On your marks, get set...

Jump!
Skip!
Run!

It's time for a cold drink,
It's time for a rest.
Well done everyone,
You've all done your best!

A sunny day, a clear blue sky
The pupils came out,
Their heads held high!
Four different colours,
Excitement to come,
All supported
By their dads and mums!
Pupils are strong, determined and fast
Here comes the parents' race,
Hope mine isn't last!
But who are the winners
Red, blue, yellow or green?
Hurrah it's a victory
For Callendar's team!
