Foraged Creatures with artist Megan Randall This week we're using a great resource from The Baltic art gallery in Newcastle. Use the link below to watch a video showing how you can create Creature Art using things you'd find in your garden! https://engage.org/happenings/baltic-meet-make-online/ If someone at home wants to share your work on The Baltic's social media, the website explains how to do it. If your art appears on it, tells us so we can look too!	Last week you , thought of a well-known man and the qualities that made him a good role model. This week, we want you to pick a woman who is a great role model - she could be alive or someone from history and a scientist, politician, sportswoman, artist, writer, explorer, even someone you know...it doesn't matter! - You need to: - Find/draw a picture of them - Write about their qualities and skills that make you admire them and inspired by them (If you need some ideas, consider: Maddie Moate from Do You Know, Emma Watson, Serena Williams, JK Rowling or even Jacinda Ardern!)	 Which activities have your household been doing during Lockdown to stay fit and healthy? Playing football in the garden? Dancing during a Zoom disco? Doing the virtual Sports Day? Draw a poster of your Lockdown Fitness Fun, including the #UNITE logo above. Use bright colours, big writing and, most importantly, make it encouraging! Everyone who sees your poster should want to start being active. Share your Activity Posters by emailing them to the school office (you have up until 13th July 2020 and there may be prizes!) Good luck!
Quiz Master	What if?	In the World...
Ok, we're coming towards the end of the school year and as a challenge to you, we'd like you to make us a quiz about your year in school. Mix up the questions so they are about: - Things we've learned - Funny or fun things that happened - Ask us to work out a person or people based on something lovely about them If you send it to us, we will do it and send you our answers for you to check and mark!	The teachers have been rewriting our school curriculum during lockdown. That means they looked at each subject and then also looked at every lesson we'll teach in it! What if you guys were the teachers? Which subjects would you include in the curriculum? How would you organise the school day? Make a timetable for the school week if you were in charge of organising it – which subjects (indoor and outdoor) would you include?	This week have a look at the lessons (some of which you've seen in class) about how to stay safe online. There's films and activities for you: thinkuknow.co.uk/8_10/watch/ And this is a link if your grown up wants to help you too! (This is also in the pack) https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/globalassets/thinkuknow/documents/thinkuknow/parents/pdf/thinkuknow-8-10s-home-activity-sheet-1.pdf

Martin Luther King Jr.

Martin Luther King Jr. was a Black man and was born in the USA on January 15th 1929. As a child, he enjoyed playing sports, playing the piano and going to school. Sadly, life was often hard. Some people treated him differently because of the colour of his skin.

Times were hard for Black people living in the USA. There were separate areas for Black people and White people on public transport, parks, restaurants and even in toilets.

Did You Know...?

In 1955, Rosa Parks, a Black woman, was arrested after refusing to give up her seat on a bus to a White man.

Black children were not allowed to go to school with white children. They had to go to separate schools that didn't have many resources to help with their learning.

Black children were not allowed to go to school with white children. They had to go to separate schools that didn't have many resources to help with their learning.

Martin Luther King Jr. was a Christian who wanted to make sure that all Americans had the same rights regardless of their race. He became a civil rights activist. This means that he campaigned for improved rights for people.

In 1963, Martin Luther King Jr. led a huge march in Washington DC, the US capital. In front of the enormous crowd, Martin Luther King Jr. made his famous 'I Have a Dream' speech. Here is a short piece of that speech:

"I have a dream that one day little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as brothers and sisters."

It is because of Martin Luther King Jr., and others like him, that the law was changed to state that everyone in America had the same rights regardless of their skin colour. The law was also changed so that everyone could vote.

Although there is still a long way to go for racial equality in America, the work of Martin Luther King Jr. was a big step in the right direction.

In 1964, he received the Nobel Peace Prize for his efforts to end racial prejudice in the United States.

Every January, there is an American national holiday to celebrate his birthday.

Did You Know...?

Martin Luther King Jr. was only 39 years old when he was killed. Many thousands of people went to his funeral.
